

ART OF THE ORIENT

Vol. 10, 2021 – Animal Motifs in the Art of the Orient, ed. Bogna Łakomska

Contents: Introduction; Aleksandra Cieślczka, The boundary between the art and product. On the meaning and form of kōgei in the past and present; Katarzyna Michalewicz, Chinese and Japanese characters in selected Polish mass, popular, orientalist and religious magazines published in the 1930s; Dorota Kamińska-Jones, Indian woman between 'new' tradition and 'old' patriarchy. Bengali painting in the service of nationalism; Magdalena Furmanik-Kowalska, Culture Trouble: The Significance of Cultural Context in an Art Historian's Research on Chinese Contemporary Art; Maciej Szatkowski, Hanna Kupś, Mao Zedong's Bakhtinian laughter: The Chinese pop avant-garde and its origins; Bogna Łakomska Animal figures inspirations in contemporary Chinese art.

Polish Institute of World Art Studies & Wydawnictwo Adam Marszałek, Toruń 2021 ISSN 2299-811-X (104 s.)